

Imperial Cities Tour

Overview

A 6-day touring of the Imperial cities of Morocco starting from Casablanca. An insight into the rich history and diversity of city life in Casablanca, Rabat, Fes, Meknes and Marrakech.

Prices from 550 Euros/person

Includes:

Private Transport
4* Accommodation
Breakfast and Dinner
Airport and hotel transfers
Guided city tours

Excludes:

Lunch
Alcohol beverages and soft drinks
Tipping

Day 1 (Casablanca)

Hotel transfer is provided upon your arrival at the airport or pick up from your hotel. A walk along the corniche and an ideal location for an evening dinner whilst enjoying the sea view. Dinner and an overnight stay.

Day 2 (Casablanca and Rabat)

Guided tour of Casablanca city to explore the famous monuments such as the Hassan II mosque, Mohammad V Square, Mahakma of the Pasha, Old Medina and Boulevard Mohammed V. After a leisurely lunch, the tour heads toward the capital city of Rabat. Here you will visit the Mausoleum of Mohammed V and Kasbah of the Udayas perched above the rugged Atlantic coastline. After a day of sightseeing, you'll travel towards Meknes for dinner and an overnight stay.

Day 3 (Meknes)

After breakfast, we will take you to a guided tour of famous heritage site of the largest and best-preserved Berber and Roman ruins of Volubilis. Subsequently, the historical trail takes you to grand tour of the imperial city of Meknes. You will discover the richness of the Islamic architecture and its history. Destination is overnight stay and dinner in Fes.

Day 4 (Fes)

As you enter Fes, you see the old city (medina) of Fes enclosed within the city walls. Guided tour includes medina, the Medersa Bou Inania, the most beautiful of Merenids monuments, Kairaouine Mosque and University, world's oldest university. Further visits to the Nejjarine Square with its 18th Century fountain and the residence of the King.

Day 5 (Fes-Ben Mellah-Marrakech)

Travelling south-east and leaving Fes behind, the first stop is picturesque Ifrane, referred to as the 'Lion City'. As you pass the city and move towards the south, you enter the middle Atlas landscape with is covered with the Cedar trees. Breaks are taken throughout day which include a lunch stop at Ben Mellah. The journey continues towards Marrakech for your overnight stay.

Day 6 (Marrakech)

After breakfast, full day guided city tour. Excursions include visit to Al Bahia Palace, Al Badi Palace Saadian Tombs and Koutoubia mosque. After lunch, a visit to the traditional markets enclosed in the medina of the city. An evening walk about to Jemaa el Fna square is highly recommended which includes dinner near of the square.